

Valentine's day

is Celebrated on February 14th and is a holiday to celebrate romance and romantic love. Are you wondering what to do with your date?

Or are you plucking up courage to invite your crush? Here are some of the things that you might want to try out and do together.

Glossary

plucking up courage – trying to be brave enough to do something; zbierać się na odwagę

a crush – an object of someone's infatuation; obiekt czyjegoś zauroczenia

try out – to try and do something; wypróbować

Send out or give a Valentine card.
The usual phrase is "Be my Valentine".

Buy flowers

Glossary

"Be my Valentine" – a phrase often written on Valentine cards that can be treated as an invitation for a date; "Zostań moją walentynką"

Give chocolate hearts either store-bought or, better even, home-made.

Go on a date.

Glossary

chocolate heart – chocolates made in the shape of a heart; czekoladowe serce store-bought – something bought at a shop or store and not made at home; kupny, -a, -e home-made – something made at home – usually do describe food; domowej roboty

Go on a movie date (in America we say go to the movie theater or in the United Kingdom to the cinema)

Eat a candle-lit dinner
in a nice restaurant.

Glossary

movie date – a date on which you go to see a movie; randka w kinie

candle-lit dinner – a dinner during which the light is provided by lit candles; kolacja przy świecach

Attend a romantic night at the planetarium.

Glossary

re-create – create again; odtworzyć

If you have been in a relationship for a while, you can try re-creating your first date.

Cook
dinner
together.

Write
love letters
to each other.

Glossary

love letter – a letter you write to the person you love; list miłosny

Send your partner on a treasure hunt.

And if you go on that dinner date, you might want to split the bill, go Dutch or go halvesies. Then a date can be called a Dutch date.

Glossary

split the bill, go Dutch, go halvesies – to pay the bill together, either equally or for oneself;
zapłacić wspólnie rachunek – po równo lub zapłacić za siebie.